

Traci L. Clayton, PhD
 Psychologist,
 Executive Coach/Consultant,
 & Twin Mom Extraordinaire

After 25+ years as a PhD Clinical Psychologist (kids & adults) & as a PhD Leadership Psychologist/Consultant to global companies, Fortune 500 executives and CEOs... Dr. Clayton had a HUGE ah-ha while writing a healthcare leadership book about the negative mindsets that keep that industry stuck. If only those leaders had grown up with positive thinking habits (like 'Can-Do/Will-Do' Abundance Attitudes), our country would be in a healthier place! The inspiration led her to write a joyful book for kids & parents with her own 10-year-old twin boys. See how these kids & their "ROCKIN' Doc" mom, Dr. Traci Lynn Clayton ("Dr. TLC"), are teaching families everywhere about how to change their lives with Positive Thinking and Abundance Mindsets.

- Cori C., Publishing Exec, Mom of 3

Listen up, kids... you better read this book! I learned that anything is possible, so I've changed my thinking!

- Eli, Age 12

I would buy multiple copies and have every kid I know read it with their parents.

- Leah C., MD, Integrative Physician

Refreshingly positive and amazingly practical... wisdom that can help families with kids of all ages.

- Dave V., PhD, Psychologist & Author

My 12-year old read this book and was immediately pumped up and inspired to practice Abundant thinking.

- Anne O, MD, Psychiatrist

The program is an INSTANT hit with readers!...

10 year-olds, MDs, educators & more!
